The Trustees of The Cleveland Museum of Art announce the election of three new Trustees at a meeting held in the Museum today. Trustees elected were Mrs. David S. Ingalls, A. Dean Perry and Robert I. Gale, Jr.

Born in Cleveland Mrs. Ingalls is related by birth and marriage to two illustrious Cleveland families. She is the former Louise Harkness, daughter of Mrs. William L. Harkness and daughter-in-law of Mrs. Albert S. Ingalls both of whom have shown their interest and devotion to the Museum in many important ways. Mrs. Ingalls herself has long been a patron of art and a benefactor of the Museum. Both her husband, David S. Ingalls who is a member of the Museum's Advisory Council, and her daughter, Mrs. Paul J. Vignos, Jr., are closely associated with the Museum.

A. Dean Perry, a native Clevelander, also is related to two distinguished Cleveland families. He is the son of A. Drake Perry and is married to Helen Wade Greene who is a direct descendant of Jeptha H. Wade one of the original benefactors of the Museum whose interest has come down through the family. Mrs. Perry is a member of the Advisory and Junior Councils of the Museum. Mr. Perry is Vice President of the Harshaw Chemical Company and serves on the Boards of many important companies. He is a Trustee of the John L. Huntington Art and Polytechnic Trust. He was a Lt. Col. in the U.S.A.A.F. from 1942 to 1946. Mr. and Mrs. Perry own a collection of significant Chinese and Japanese paintings.

Robert I. Gale, Jr. was born in Indianapolis but came to Cleveland at an early age and was educated here. He is married to Frances Elizabeth White whose whole family has had a close association with the Museum over many years. Mrs. Gale is the daughter of Mrs. Fred R. White and niece of the late Robert Castle Norton and Laurence Harper Norton. She is a member of the Junior Council of the Museum. Mr. Gale serves as a Trustee of the John L. Huntington Art and Polytechnic Trust, and other institutions.

Present members of the Board are: George P. Bickford, Charles B. Bolton, Harold T. Clark, Edgar A. Hahn, Severance A. Millikin, Mrs. R. Henry Norweb, Ralph S. Schmitt, James N. Sherwin, John S. Wilbur, Lewis B. Williams and Mrs. Albert S. Ingalls, Emeritus.
